“ Doing the dishes with Aunt M and grandma all the other ladies of the family was not a chore. We laughed and talked and ate and just had a great time. The men folk don't know what they missed out on as they napped and talked while the women were doing the "dishes".

“ One of my favorite Aunts. She was for sure the trickster. Especially tying socks into knots. Loved her homemade pickles and cookies. Dance away now. Little Polka music with Grandpa Budd. Thinking and praying for all the family. Jeff and Judy and Nathan Smith.

“ Sorry, I just heard about Marguerite's passing. Oh, what a character she was! She would always ask if I was being good or not. I would talk to her at Westview, and although she couldn't see me, she always knew my voice and said my name. What a great family she has left behind to continue her legacy !

With sincere sympathy,

Dennis Hutt
